WITH CAMERA IN HAND, WE HAVE SEARCHED EVERY ROOM AND SECTION OF THIS BEAUTIFUL BUILDING TO FIND PICTURES THAT WILL RECALL FOR YOU EVENTS OF NEVER-TO-BE-FORGOTTEN SCHOOL DAYS. ARE YOU COMING ALONG TO SEE WHAT WE FOUND?

"Candidly"

The defense factories are looking for boys like these. They are Paul Mayolette and John Berning in case you don't recognize them.

Allan Brough (advertising manager of the Purple and Gold) is checking the ads with Mr. Combs in his office.

Work's all done for Lois Hanely, Catherine Hallenbeck, and Frances O'Harra. Now it's time for a little conversation.

Speaking

Joanne Trask on her way up the artistic end stairway.

Nothing to do but hang over the railing! You wouldn't think they had a care in the world.

We'll let you guess whether we put this picture in because of Toledo's downtown skyline or to show off the limousines (?) of Waite's faculty.

Swinging and swaying at the "Snow Frolic."

Without Margaret Lillie, Mary Salpietro, and Joyce Maye working every day at the mimeograph, the teachers at Waite would certainly be at a loss.

Marian Neff files subscription cards and Dehra Passino takes Kathryn Nicholas' payment in the Purple and Gold business office.

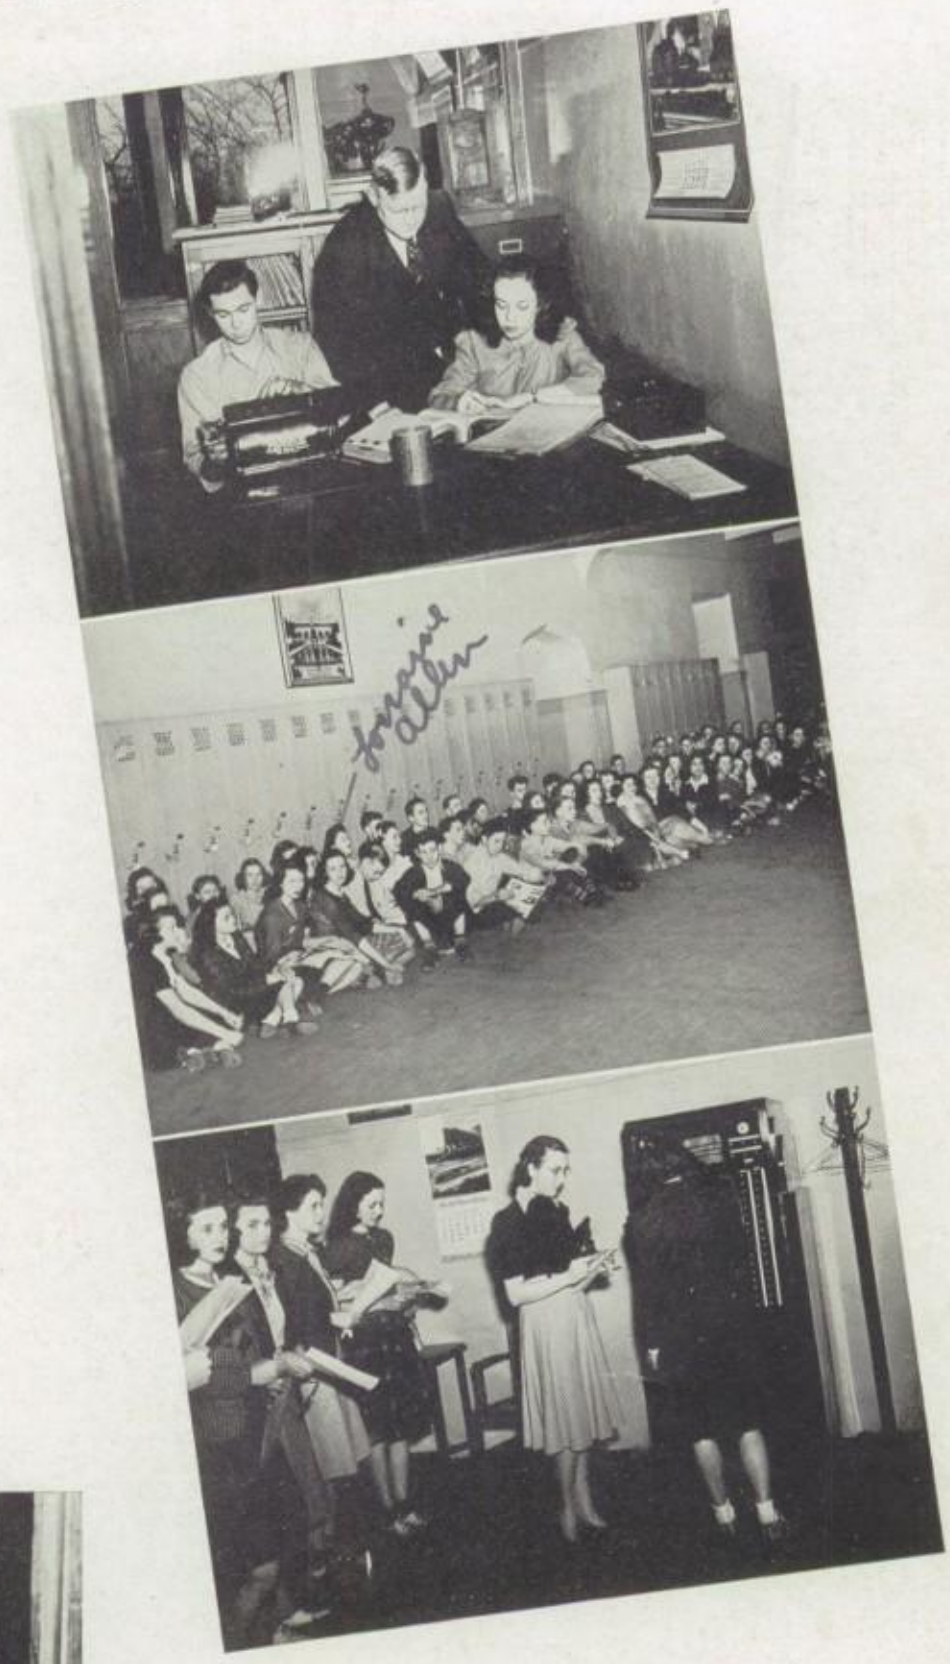
While all the students are in their classes working, let's take a look at the third floor corridor. How long and wide it looks when it is empty!

Mr. Dunn is teaching his class how to do artificial respiration—in case the waves in the pool should get too high.

Sure, we are patriotic at Waite. Louise Huffman and Bob Weiker are buying defense stamps from Lorenna Sparks.

Every sixth hour you can watch these girls knitting, purling, and dropping stitches for our soldiers, sailors, and refugees.

"Photogenic"



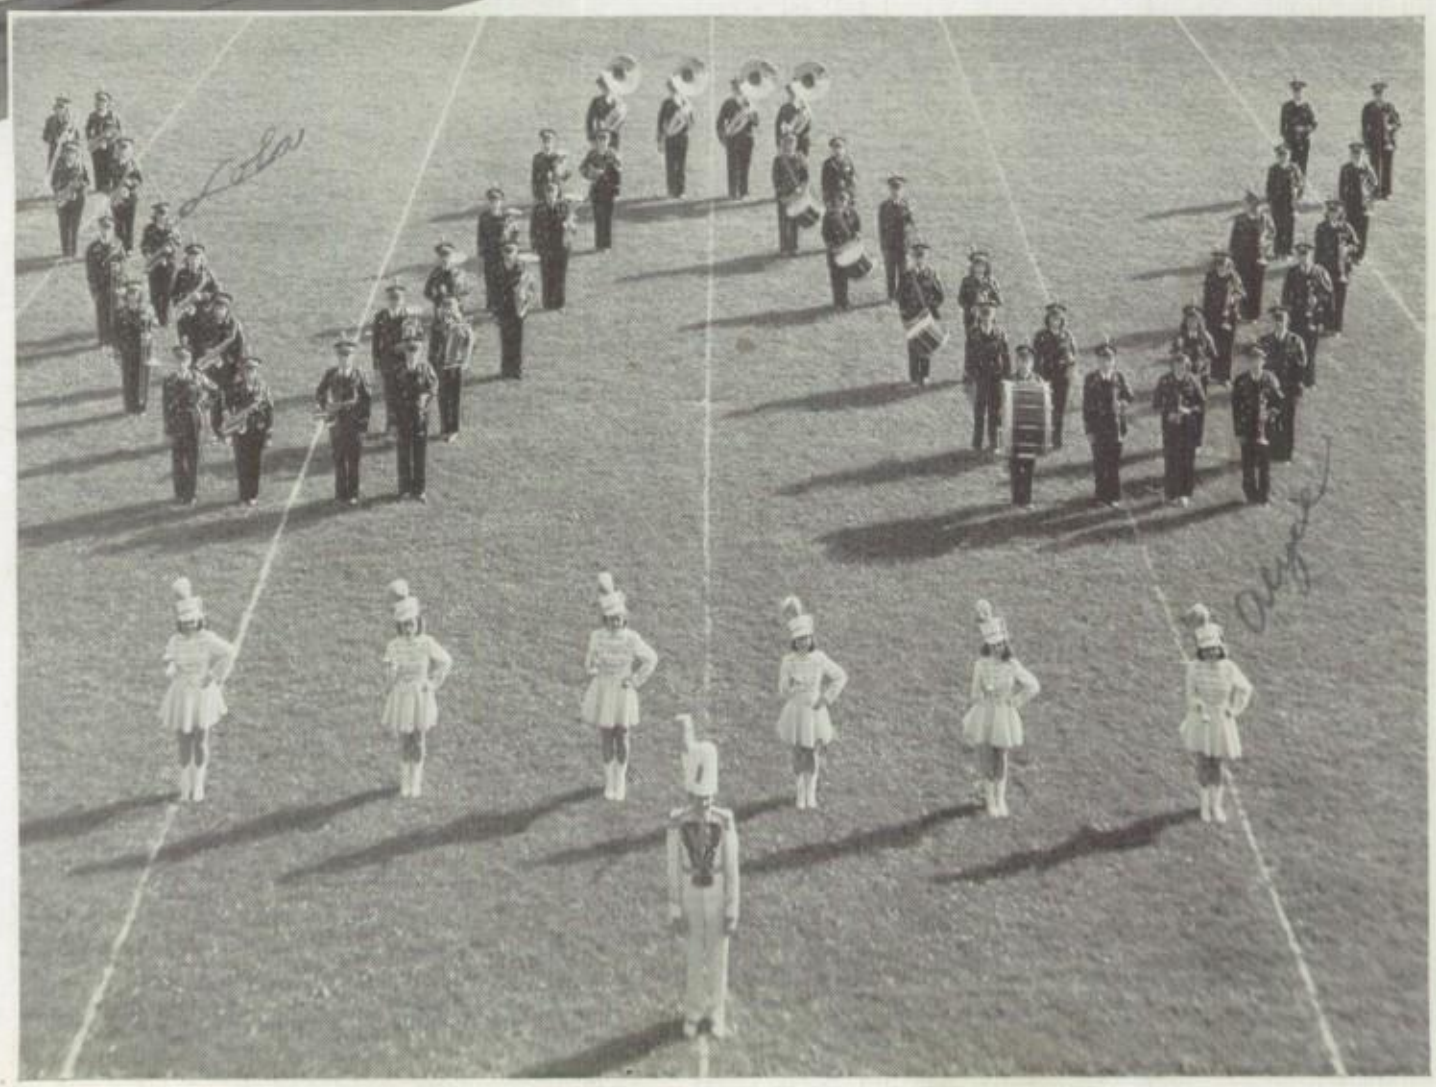
Jim Wunderly and Louise Clark are helping Mr. Pearsall with his difficult task of Director of Athletics.

If that isn't a fine place to be sitting—on the floor! But it's all right, it's an air raid drill.

The girl whose back is turned is none other than Mildred Weeks. It is her voice we all hear so many mornings over the P. A. Mrs. Sherman is at her left. Arleen Miller, Henrietta Gonia, Marian Neff, and Rhea Horst are waiting their turn.

Sometimes it's fun to go clear inside instead of always looking in. Congenial Glen Bauman and Louie Timmons are in charge of the stationer's desk the second semester.

With their heads in the clouds, the drum majorettes, Clara Walsh, Shirley Brown, Alyce Walker, Betty Sterling, Helyn Webber, and Jean Kuhman, strut their stuff.



Drum Major Carl Melms brings the band to W formation.

Dedication

The dedication of the Purple and Gold of nineteen forty-two is an expression of the debt of gratitude that Morrison R. Waite High School owes to Mrs. Delia R. Fortune.

Gracious, obliging, patient Mrs. Fortune has spent seventeen years at Waite High School, helping students with difficult but highly cultural Latin, and with perplexing and troublesome algebra. Her keen interest in students, her untiring efforts in obtaining for them scholarships to institutions of higher learning, and her sympathetic attitude toward their welfare are well known. Extra curricular activities also claim her attention, for she is counselor for the Zetalethean Literary Society, and is one of the advisers for the Optimates.

In her quest for doing good, she is concerned about every stray dog, bedraggled cat, or abused horse that comes to her notice. Better far than the poets, Robert Burns or James Russell Lowell, does she teach the brotherhood of all living creatures.

MRS. DELIA FORTUNE

It may be truly said of Mrs. Fortune that she leads the Good Life. In fact, she never strikes up the hectic pace of modernity, but always finds some leisure for talking things over, for reading, for visiting friends, for cheering the discouraged, for making jokes about life, and for loving her fellowmen, and, in turn, being loved by them.

A graduate of Hiram College in Ohio, Mrs. Fortune also attended Penn College in Iowa, and the University of Toledo.

Fortune has unquestionably smiled upon Mrs. Fortune, blessing her with a son and two daughters, all of whom are serving the United States in some capacity. James, formerly of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, is a lieutenant in the Navy, teaching at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. Anne, whose husband is a physician in the United States Army, was at Honolulu at the time of the Pearl Harbor disaster, but is now residing in the United States. Isabel is a physiotherapist at Fort Hayes, Ohio.

Since it is by one's fruit that one is known, certainly, Mrs. Fortune's reputation is not a bubble one, but a lasting one. Indeed, her own children and her adopted ones at Waite are proof of her ability to guide young folk aright.

With honest admiration and with sincere respect for an excellent mother, an enthusiastic teacher, and a steadfast friend, we dedicate the Purple and Gold to Mrs. Delia R. Fortune.

MR. CONSER

MR. CONSER

Being the principal of a large, modern school is no simple task. Few realize how many important decisions are to be made; how much time is spent doing seemingly trivial things that will later greatly benefit the student body and the faculty; the many, many demands that are made upon a person in this position. Mr. Conser has been principal of Waite High School for thirteen years. During that time, the students have always found him willing to listen to their problems and plans. Interested continually in the welfare of the students, Mr. Conser has introduced new courses and activities he knew would be helpful. Faculty members also find him ready to be of service. Waite is fortunate in having such a congenial administrator.

MISS GRIFFITH

Miss Marguerite Griffith is completing her second year as full time dean of girls at Waite. Checking attendance, taking care of problem cases, giving friendly advice and serious counsel, placing girls in part-time and full-time jobs are all a part of her regular routine.

MR. KLAG

Mr. Fred Klag, dean of boys, takes care of disciplinary cases, checks irregular attendance and truancy. Although his job seems to be like that of a policeman, he is really a friend to all boys.

Silence! They're on the air! This is Mrs. Sherman's radio production class doing the play "Canterville Ghost."

Faculty

Be prepared! That seems to be the motto Miss Gerding is carrying out in teaching Virginia Cramer, Betty Nichols, Goldia DeBarr, and Pat Riley how to make the different kinds of slings.

If these students who are studying so hard don't mind, we would like to look over their heads at the attractive poster in Mrs. Osborne's Sociology class.

Faculty

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Seated—Miss Roache, Miss Commager, Miss Newbirt, Miss Rees, Miss Malloy.

Standing—Mr. Konnert, Miss Hart, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Hall, Miss Cowell, Mrs. Sherman, Miss Burns, Miss Nelson, Miss Cosgray.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

Seated—Mrs. Fortune, Miss Tobin, Miss Waite, Miss Houk.

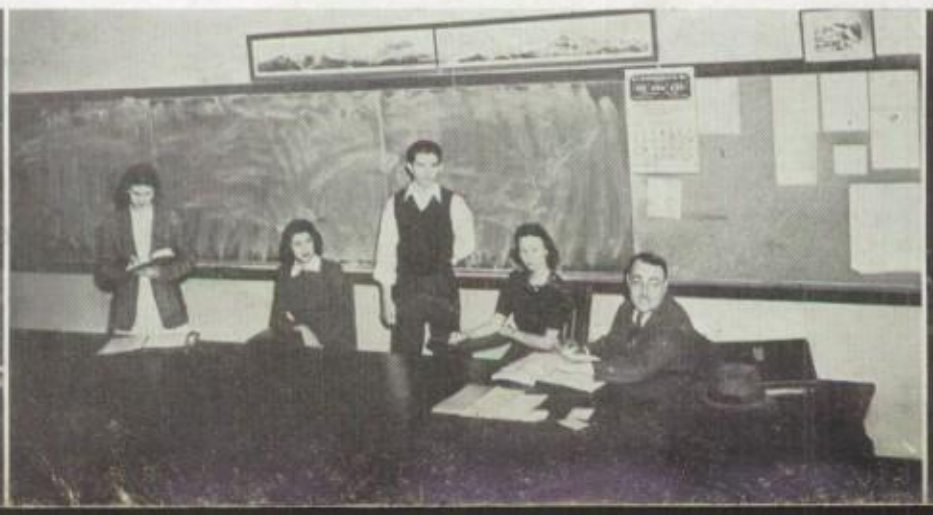
Standing—Mr. Turby, Mr. Williams, Mr. Fetters, Miss Wintermantel.

Sh-h-h. Miss Hollinger, librarian, and Joyce Geisert are finding books and answering questions for the studious pupils of Waite.

A little time out from class for Mrs. Hall to show her attractive bulletin board to Arleen Miller and the other students.

Come now, don't just stand there—get that debate started. Armo Seferian, James Lambert, Mary Konoff, Betty Pund, and Mr. Miller will lead you on.

Mr. Wester is supervising the work of Carl Kramer who is doing the pains-taking job of cutting out the holes in a poker-chip holder.



Faculty

ART AND LANGUAGE DEPARTMENTS

Seated—Miss Carpenter, Mrs. Fortune, Miss Boerger, Miss Bumgardner.

Standing—Miss Houk, Mrs. Sheets.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT

Seated—Miss Rehfeldt, Mrs. Werner, Mr. Youngquist, Miss Petcoff, Mr. Baird.

Standing — Mr. Thomson, Mr. Cummings, Mr. McKee, Mr. Terhell, Mr. Wester.

Mrs. Werner is helping Irene Bishop and Eleanor Neudorfer make their new spring outfits. Let's hope they can wear them.

Here they are, boys—Ruth Langel, Marguerite Timm, Miss Petcoff, Margaret Milano, Florence Micenec, Hazel Ignatz, and Patricia Navarre just waiting to make your delicious pies and cakes for you.

We wonder what Bill Austin's working so hard at that necessitates Mr. McKee's watching? Dorothy Stader and Betty Foulk are working at machines in the background.

Listen hard and maybe you can hear what these radio amateurs are trying to get. They are Louis Galambos, Doris Schlender, Wallace Walker, and Don Hall. Mr. Thomson supervises the work.

Mr. Brenner.

Standing
Mr. Bear,
Miss Pickard,
Mr. Mills,
Miss Druggan.

We certainly hope that Lydia Slovak and Helen Androws can read the shorthand they are writing. Miss Moore is dictating.

Easy now, Mr. Rohlfing! Don't let your class mix the wrong things together or they might blow up the building.

Watch your posture, keep an even touch, don't let your arms droop. All right, you may start. Click . . . click . . . click.

If you ever see a stray rat running around in any of the rooms, don't be frightened. Ralph Schaefer, Dale Miller, Jim Ireland, Bob Shake, Jim Wunderly, Ruby Sparks, Jeannette Walls, and Pat Marsh aren't afraid of them—at least when they are in a cage.

Mrs. Ruth Schultz, Mrs. Mary Wargo, Miss Mabel Wemp.

Office Personnel

In September, Waite students were surprised to see two new members in our office . . . Mrs. Ruth Schultz, who replaced Miss Nelson . . . Mrs. Mary Wargo, who has Mrs. Mau's work . . . Their job was a difficult one . . . making the necessary adjustments to their complicated work . . . learning the functions of our school well enough to answer the many questions asked of them . . . getting acquainted with faculty and students . . . Mrs. Schultz . . . the school secretary . . . also takes care of student credits and records and eligibility lists . . . Junior Class

Row 1—Margaret Papp, Jean Hanni.
Row 2—Merlin Stewart, Kenneth Brandeburg, Frank Lehnert.

As in years preceding, the most important event sponsored by the Junior class was the annual J Hop . . . Secor Hotel . . . April 14 . . . Chairman Bob Felt . . . assisted by Dick Perry, Janice Smith, and Paula Rose . . . The Committee finally secured the exclusive Secor Ballroom after many postponements.

Two one-act plays . . . directed by Miss Mildred Cowell, class adviser . . . were presented in the auditorium . . . huge success . . . There was better organization and much was accomplished this year, because Miss Cowell had a free hour each day for committee meetings, conferences, and other activities of the Junior class.

Another activity which never before has a Junior Class ventured into was a skating party . . . February 9 . . . The large crowd at the Coliseum made this a financial success . . . Class rings were distributed after school April 13.

IN MEMORIAM

"Another leaf has fallen,
Another soul has gone,
But still we have God's promise
In every robin's song;
For He is in His Heaven
And though He takes away,
He always leaves to mortals
The bright sun's kindly ray.
He leaves the fragrant blossoms,
And lovely forests, green,
And gives us new-found comfort
When we on Him will lean."

The industrious directors . . . appointed by our president, Gerold Dixon, . . . achieved their goals by long, unceasing hours of work. Due to Gerold Dixon's and Kathryn Parsons' withdrawal from school, special recognition should be given to James Smith, chairman pro tempore, and Frances O'Harra clerk of the board. Without any previous experience, they stepped in and efficiently carried on the work.

Meetings were held twice each month . . . at which time plans were discussed for improvement in the Council and in the school. Regular activities were numerous . . . The Council was in charge of scheduling all club meetings and activities . . . the Thanksgiving football mass meeting

. . . the approving of constitutions . . . and granting of charters to the new Philalethean Literary Society and the Pro and Con Club . . . coöperated with the Hall Patrol . . . Council and class elections . . . advertising in the halls.

Some extra projects were sponsored by the Council. One of the most successful was the Sizzle . . . the school newspaper . . . that has shown much progress. To help with the great war effort . . . the sale of Defense Stamps was backed . . . A service flag was erected in the hall . . . bearing stars to represent all students now in the Service . . . James Smith spoke before a P.-T.A. meeting . . . A thorough survey of club memberships and the financial standing of clubs was completed.

During the summer of 1941 the Council sent three delegates to the National Convention of Student Councils at Boston . . . The delegates returned with many new ideas for Waite's student government.

Mrs. Victoria Canfield serves as adviser of the Student Council.

The speaker at this candle lighting service was Reverend William Steffins of St. Paul's Methodist Church . . . The student body at the March induction was inspired by Reverend Thomas Reehorn . . . the four standards were explained by Armo Seferian, Goldia DeBarr, Eileen Kendall, and Edward Whitmore.

The members were entertained at bi-monthly meetings by talks and general discussions . . . Martha Craig, the first president to hold the office two semesters, capably presided at the meetings.

November brought the "Honor Society Quiz" . . . headed by Mr. Fred Klag as Professor Quiz . . . sponsored as means of earning money to establish a college scholarship for some worthy member . . . Informal initiations and spreads were in the refectory both semesters.

Under the supervision of Miss Sarah Waite and Miss Mildred Burns, the society had a successful year . . . the members greatly appreciate the work and energy spent by both advisers.

EDITORIAL STAFF

The Editorial Staff has a hard job . . . carefully planning to stay within the budget . . . supervising all pictures that are taken . . . making layouts . . . mounting pictures . . . write-ups . . . identifications and page headings . . . constant checking of activities lists of names and committees . . . reading proof . . . deciding the theme.

This group is under the supervision of Miss Maxine Cosgray, Literary adviser.

ART STAFF

The Art Staff of the yearbook . . . made up of a small group of art students . . . work out the ideas of the Editorial Staff . . . They draw the division pages, cartoons . . . any extra pictures needed.

The group is under the direction of Miss Flora Carpenter, who has been art adviser since the first Waite annual was published.

SOLICITORS AND BUSINESS STAFF

The solicitors of the Purple and Gold were carefully chosen from a group of volunteers . . . Soliciting dates were set up by the Student Council . . . Each solicitor keeps her own record of sales . . . works under the Business Manager and assistants. In addition to supervising the solicitors, the Business Staff gets ads from East Side and Toledo business firms.

Both these groups are under the direction of Mr. Earl Combs.

Periclean Literary Society

"For we're the merry Peri girls so true" . . . the opening line of the Peri song aptly describes the members of the Periclean Literary Society.

The 1941-42 programs promoted literary interest by following the theme "Books from a Modern Bookshelf" . . . Two book reviews are given at each meeting . . . "Junior Miss," "Life with Father," "The Yearling," "Arsenic and Old Lace," and "How Green was My Valley" were a few of the books reviewed by Senior members . . . Kept us up to date on current fiction.

Our social season started with a couple hayride . . . at Boots and Saddles Club . . . Roast followed . . . Oh boy! Hot dogs, cider, potato chips.

Row 1—Norma Henry, Suzanne Pauken, Evelyn Seeman, Betty Lou Hackman, Eileen Kendall

Row 2—Pat Eleston, Gerry Eleston, Doris Novotny, Goldia DeBarr, Mildred Gross.

Muriel Knecht, Kathryn Ehrsam, Lucille Veloff, Agnes Botek.

Annual Peri-Zet Mixer held in gym . . . October 17 . . . There were many ideal "get-acquainted" games . . . where old members met prospective members. Dancing and refreshments followed the games.

The initiations and spreads are always entertaining to old members, but oh the pledges! . . . The first semester, the spread and initiation was held at the home of Suzanne Pauken, and the second, at Norma Henry's.

The highlight of the season was the "Snowflake Frolic" . . . Peri-Zet Dance . . . January 24 at the Woman's Building . . . Clever decorations, huge snowflakes suspended from the ceiling and evergreen trees . . . swing by Dick Hanselman's Orchestra . . . Bright colored formals and the snowflakes made a striking picture.

Rollicking Peri Skating Party at the Coliseum . . . February 9 . . . where everyone slipped, fell, and skated . . . once in a while . . . plenty of fun.

The Peris entertained their mothers at a tea April 13 . . . in the refectory . . . Waite Peris were entertained at a tea given by the DeVilbiss Peris . . . at Toledo Museum of Art . . . Musical program presented. The season was ended the usual way with the Peri Banquet.

Because of the War, wool for sweaters was difficult to get. Pins, as distinctions, were substituted for the traditional Peri sweater.

Forum

Many interesting reports, talks and good times . . . in the picture that the camera took of the Forum Literary Society. Well given reports by members such as "The Hunters of Heaven," and "The First Christmas" were enjoyed by the society. A guest speaker . . . Mr. Joe Packo, a boxer . . . but now retired from ring . . . talked on "Alcohol and Physical Development" . . . great value to each and every member. Annual address by adviser Mr. Williams . . . "Parliamentary Procedure" and the use of "Robert's Rules" . . . gave new members idea of how meetings are run.

Occasion held especially for new pledges . . . at Collins Park . . . commonly known as initiation. After the pledges were fed oysters, garlic, and all the trimmings, they had the pleasure of taking the old members out to a real dinner.

What are those orange and black (mostly orange) button sweaters sported by many boys of the student body? . . . Why, those are the new Forum distinctions . . . What taste those Forum lads have! . . . nothing bright, of course.

Literary Society

The Forum does not take pleasure in printing results of the traditional Forum-Q. D. Football game . . . 7-43 . . . At least those seven points were the first ones that the Forum has scored on the Q. D.'s for years. . . . It's lots of fun, anyway.

The Forum boys would be at a great loss if it weren't for the worthy advisers . . . Mr. Milton Williams and Mr. William Brenner . . . who help them make their decisions.

George Hanzi, President . . . together with several other members . . . took the offer of the University of Toledo . . . attending classes at the beginning of the second semester. Bob Drews and James Debth took over the duties of the former president, and James Deuble and Allan Brough were elected vice-president and treasurer, respectively.

"The Tenth Annual Dance" . . . presented by Forum and Q. D. Literary Societies . . . March 7 . . . at Heather Downs Country Club . . . with the music of Jimmie Reemsnyder's Orchestra . . . was the highlight of the social season. Bob Drews, Chairman . . . was assisted by committee—Robert Petcoff, Jack McCabe, James Debth, Dale Hecklinger, and Vernon Smith.

Row 2—Jean Strout, Lucille Siewert, Betty Ducey, Betty Watson.

The eye of the camera catches the picture of "This Modern Age" . . . literary theme chosen by members this year. "Tomorrow is Another Day," "Great American Family," "Again the River," "Traveller in Time" . . . reports very entertaining as well as educational. The society meets every other Friday after school . . . two book reports by girls given at each meeting . . . Zet locket awarded to the better of the two reports for first week following meeting . . . other member receives locket for the second week.

Initiation! . . . days in the fall and spring anxiously awaited by older members . . . days dreaded by the pledges. First good time had at the home of Jean Strout . . . What a meal for the pledges—oysters and onions! The second at Martha Craig's home . . . the admired boys of the senior class had lovely poems written about them by the pledges.

January 24 in the Women's Building . . . "The Snow Frolic" . . . bare Christmas trees and large white snowflakes hanging from the ceiling helped to make a wintery atmosphere . . . Of course the Zets and Peris combined as usual for this occasion, the first formal dance given by the two societies.

Zetalethean Literary Society

Zet-Peri Mixer . . . held in the gym . . . gossiping in little rotating groups served as means of getting acquainted.

Because it was Waite's turn to sponsor the Zet City-wide Tea, co-Chairman Joanne Trask and Miriam Wiederanders chose the Art Museum for the affair . . . held March 13 . . . program in Lecture Hall and tea in the Cloister.

In addition to the standing distinction . . . green and gray sweaters . . . the club voted to buy pins. Several members bought them . . . a pin and a guard attached.

A new method of taking in girls was used in the second semester . . . application by girls who desired to belong to Zets . . . old members then voted on applicants.

The invaluable advisers . . . Mrs. Delia Fortune, Counselor; Mrs. Mildred Osborne, Literary Adviser, Miss Marion Hart, Social Adviser . . . assist all committees and program chairman to make this society worth while.

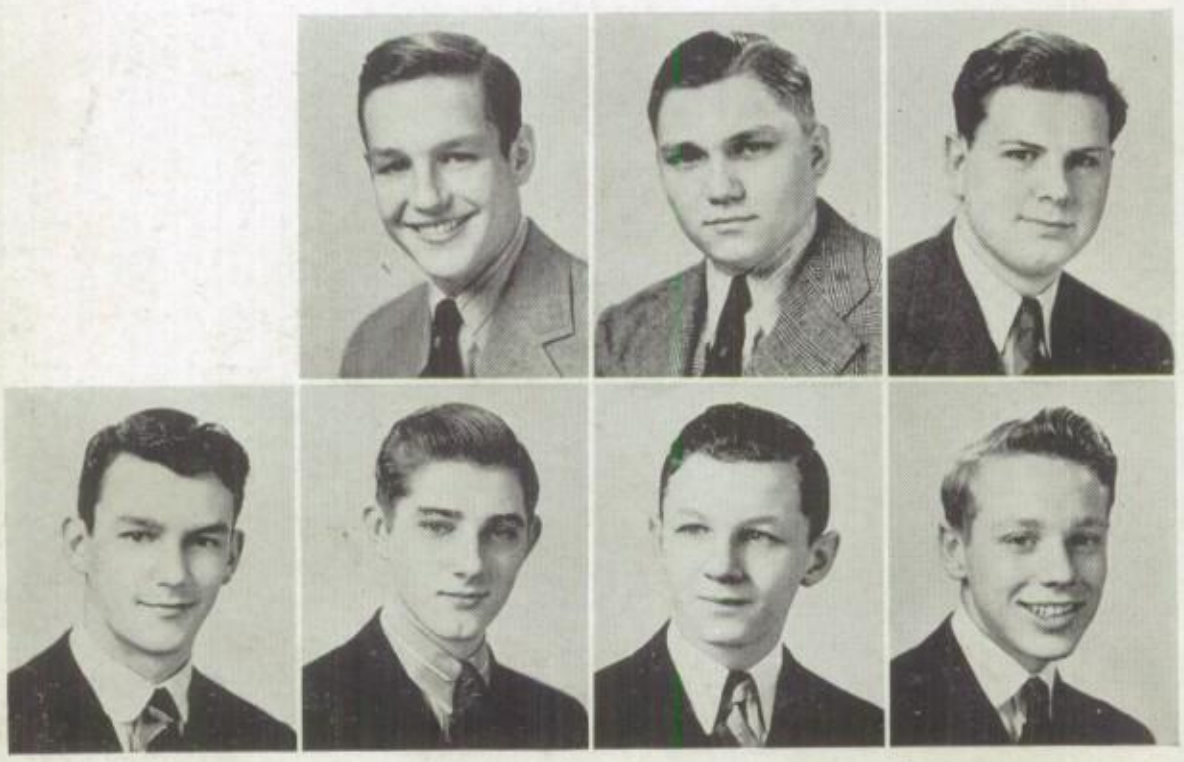
Quill and Dagger

What does the candid shot catch as the standards of the Quill and Dagger Literary Society? . . . Friendship, Fraternity, Endeavor, and Achievement. With the helpful guidance of the two advisers . . . Mr. Arthur Mills, and Mr. Robert McKee . . . this society has endeavored to attain a social and scholastic program throughout the year.

The most exciting event of the year . . . Q. D.-Forum football game . . . and we must mention the Q. D.'s . . . they won with a score of 43-7. Even if all the stars were covered with mud, it was worth it.

The annual Q. D. roast . . . in the fall at Pearson Park. Initiations for new pledges . . . massacre for first semester held in Riverside Park, and Pearson Park for the second semester.

Long discussions about distinctions . . . slipover or button down the front. Conclusion . . . button down the front—gray and maroon as last year.



Row 1—Alonzo Church, William Austin, Robert Dearth.

John Rideout, George Kiroff, Albert Rutherford.

Literary Society

Need for self development, fore-sight, sane attitude, plan for home room discussions, idea of democracy . . . topics brought out by Mr. Jesse Steiner in an interesting talk to the Q. D. boys. Also George Kiroff's report on "Franklin's Autobiography" rounded out another interesting meeting. Christmas baskets made by school . . . the Quill and Daggers contributed to the making of them.

March 7 . . . Heather Downs Country Club . . . featuring Jimmie Reemsnyder's Orchestra . . . date of the "Tenth Annual Dance" of the Q. D.'s and Forum. Chairman of this occasion—Floyd Bantz . . . committee—Albert Rutherford, Dick Martin, Robert Dearth, and Paul Lang.

Many of the boys in the society took advantage of offer by the University of Toledo for boys of the upper third of the class to enter at beginning of second semester . . . including President Don St. John. Vice-President Dick Alexander carried on where Don left off.

Philalethean

Something new has been added! . . . We are foundlings but we are paving the way . . . willing to learn . . . For years Waite has needed an additional girls' literary society, but no definite step was taken . . . This year some of the ambitious girls got together and the results . . . a new chapter of the Philalethean Literary Society holding meetings every other Friday in room 308 . . . Under the very able advisership of Mrs. Tom Hall, Miss Dorothy Gerding, and Miss Florence Rees the club has progressed to moderate success . . . Time will tell!

At the first regular meeting held in December, Miss Rees started the literary programs by presenting the old Christmas story, "The Other Wise Man." This established a precedent for the succeeding meetings.

Starting the social whirl . . . The Phils planned an afternoon dance held in the gym in mid-February . . . The theme followed a patriotic trend . . . Carl Melm's orchestra furnished melodic strains for such cleverly entitled dances as Washington Reveille . . . Presidential Strut . . . Valley Forge Fox-trot . . . Beverly Haynes and her committee worked hard to make this first social event a success.

Literary Society

Fine to the nth degree is the word for the spread . . . held at Beverly Haynes' home at the Point . . . Oh! the agony the pledges went through . . . with garlic and soap for dessert . . . The pledges took their oath by candle light which was very beautiful and effective . . . afterwards everyone ate to her heart's content . . . you know what we mean when we say pot-luck.

This new literary society is working toward scholarship . . . companionship . . . leadership . . . and the only way is . . . hands to the wheel . .. . heads to our work.

Sizzle

"How many want a Sizzle? . . . This familiar question is heard every Tuesday and Friday morning . . . The Sizzle is published twice a week so the news will still be "hot."

The Student Council saw the need of a paper for a school as large as Waite, so sponsored the Sizzle . . . The experiment—a mimeographed two-page paper—was successful. In fact, it has been so successful that great plans are contemplated for next year . . . a four-page printed paper to be included in the activities ticket.

The bright colored paper and ink always attracted attention . . . Remember the red and green Christmas issue? . . . Hot, spicy news in the gossip columns, jokes and editorials kept students up-to-date on functions of school organizations . . . "Know more about your school" and "In the Spotlight," too . . . every Friday there was a calendar of the activities of the coming week entitled "What's Cookin'."

The first semester the papers were sold by subscription . . . the second semester single copies were distributed by the Sizzle staff . . . The staff members belong to the newly organized Toledo Scholastic Press Association . . . The staff sponsored an afternoon dance November 5 . . . Carl Melm's orchestra played for the affair held in the gym.

Hall Patrol

The Hall Patrol is a branch of the Student Council . . . under the supervision of Director of Police, Edward Whitmore . . . The function of the Hall Patrol is to keep Waite's halls in order . . . The patrollers ask for hall permits . . . are guides to visitors in the building . . . There are five captains: Betty Lou Hackman, Ned Piper, Kathleen Black, Leatrice Kutchenriter, and William Begg . . . one captain for each hour—except fourth hour . . . they take attendance and report patrol activity to the director . . . The goal of the patrols past and that of 1942 is to keep the halls quiet in order that classes are not disturbed . . . This year's hall patrol hopes its goal was accomplished.

The camera saw all the officers except the Chaplain of the Engineers leave them to go to the University of Toledo to attend classes at the beginning of the second semester. Tough luck . . . but anyway let's hope they will become the great engineers of tomorrow.

In October . . . steak roast . . . basement of Mr. Thomson's, adviser, home . . . for all members of the Engineers.

Twenty-two years . . . length of time in which the engineers have furthered knowledge of engineering and made it easier for boys to choose the phase of engineering best suited for them. Visiting different factories . . . that has always been highlight in the Engineering Society until this year. Defense program now prohibits any visiting of groups of this kind.

Several movies from the General Electric Company and speakers on subjects related to engineering . . . enjoyed by boys throughout the year.

The first and third Wednesdays of every month . . . days set aside for meetings of the engineers. Requirements for belonging to this society . . . a year of some shop subject or physics or chemistry.

During second semester the boys carried on defense projects . . . members took great interest in them.

As always . . . Mr. Fred Klag, Mr. Alvin Youngquist, and Mr. Christian Thomson guide the Engineers in their activities and advise them in finding the vocation best suited to the members.

Altobee Art Club

The Altobee Art Club got off to a flying start . . . committees were organized . . . chairmen elected . . . at the first meeting of the year.

The new members were inducted November 13 . . . This was something different for both the old and new members . . . games . . . songs . . . and speeches . . . all a part of the initiation . . . food was served afterwards . . . Meetings are held every other Tuesday after school . . . In the fall a roast was held at Side-Cut Park . . . brought the artists in contact with natural beauty . . . Need it be added that a good time was had by all?

Talent from the student body took part in a variety show April 6 . . . Show was sponsored by the club . . . dancers . . . singers . . . musicians and many others were the entertainers . . . A roast and sketching party was held on April 14 . . . The main object was sketching pictures.

Much of the success of this organization is due to Miss Flora Carpenter, the adviser . . . The Art Club is fortunate in having a person so willing and ready to help.

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Français . . . an organization of French students . . . is interested primarily in the study of this language and its people . . . The club also wishes to recognize the merits of its members . . . Therefore, it is sponsoring a scholarship fund . . . to be given to an outstanding member . . . The present aim is to do this annually.

Distinctions . . . petit "W" pins . . . purchased for all members to wear as long as they are taking French . . . If one desires, he may purchase his pin upon graduating.

Funds for the treasury were earned by collecting sales tax stamps in all French classes . . . Also a successful skating party . . . held at the Coliseum in December.

French is put to use at semi-monthly meetings . . . by playing games, singing songs, and producing plays . . . all in French . . . This encourages the more fluent use of the language . . . also enables the students to make practical use of their instructions in regular classes. Christmas party . . . plays, stories, and songs given in French . . . after which . . . refreshments, . . . The year drew to a close with the traditional picnic.

The organization is a success, due largely to the co-operation and advice of Miss Isabella Houk, whose practical knowledge . . . gained by travel and study in France . . . makes French more interesting to the students.

Spanish Club

"Se abre la sesion" . . . (The meeting will come to order) . . . this from the president . . . all chatter ceases . . . the reports of the secretary . . . and the treasurer are heard . . . old and new business taken care of . . . now for the program . . . So it goes every other Friday in room 229 when the Spanish Club meets . . . There are about thirty students in this group . . . composed of first-year students with A or B grades and any other Spanish students . . . Among the things which make the club interesting are the programs which vary for each meeting . . . consisting of quiz bees, songs, plays, and games . . . all in Spanish . . . The club was created in order to put to use the knowledge of the Spanish language so that students will be able to speak it more fluently when the opportunities arise.

Among the activities of the year were the purchasing of Spanish records . . . to add to the collection which began last year . . . the sponsoring of a candy sale . . . the purchasing of a new Spanish-English dictionary . . . The club plans a roast in the spring . . . A great deal of credit goes to Miss Edythe Bumgardner, whose untiring work has been a great help to the club's success.

Optimates

"Optimates," meaning best men, expresses the high standard and ideals of this organization . . . Miss Fon Boerger and Mrs. Delia Fortune serve as advisers and have guided the club to its present high position.

The Optimates have various activities . . . the annual roller skating party, March 30, at the Coliseum . . . a spring dance April 22 at school . . . At their regular meetings they have lectures on diverse subjects . . . The year's activities are not complete without the traditional picnic . . . held at the close of the second semester.

Outsiders believe that the study of such a language as Latin is a thing of the past . . . but the centuries of progress made by this language in medical practice . . . practical legal use . . . as well as in cultural values . . . still make this group believe that it is something worth cherishing and keeping alive.

To belong . . . the student must have an active interest in Latin and must be in his second year of Latin . . . having at least a C average.

Pro and Con Society

One of the newest clubs at Waite is the Pro and Con Society . . . Because the group discusses the pros and cons of various questions, they decided the name to be fitting . . . Students and faculty members felt the need of a history club and made it possible this year . . . Its aim . . . to promote in history and civics outside of class . . . The meetings . . . every other Tuesday in room 120.

To succeed in their aim, outside speakers were secured for every other meeting . . . Their subjects . . . civic affairs . . . Debates were held on several occasions . . . Some of the more interesting subjects debated were: Resolved: The President is doing his best for National Defense. This was before Japan's attack at Pearl Harbor; Resolved: The Chain store is a better place to buy groceries than an independent store.

The club conducted a doughnut sale . . . the profits of which were to purchase a defense bond . . . Social activities included a spread at Collins Park Shelter House in November . . . a picnic in May . . . Mrs. Ethel Kemp and Mr. Jesse Steiner are the able advisers of the group.

Senior Friendship Club

The Senior Friendship Club is one of the most active clubs at Waite . . . It consists of junior and senior girls . . . This organization has many interesting events through out the year.

On March 8th, Rev. Russell J. Humbert gave a very worthwhile address on "Boy and Girl Relationships" . . . A representative of Warner's Beauty College gave a demonstration on the correct way to apply make-up. . . She used a member of the club as a model . . . The assistant librarian from Locke Branch Library reviewed three new books . . . Election of officers was held on April 15 . . . Installation of officers and a mother's tea was given in the refectory on April 29.

Mrs. Schnell of the Y. W. C. A. led a combined meeting of the Junior and Senior Friendship Clubs in singing . . . A short Lenten Service was presented on February 18.

This group of students is deserving of much praise for their work throughout the year. Their advisers are Miss Isabella Houk and Miss Louise Nelson.

Junior Friendship Club

The Junior Friendship Club . . . made up of Freshman and Sophomore girls . . . under the capable direction of Miss Lasetta Pickard and Miss Virginia Hollinger . . . The girls began the year with a roast at Pearson Park . . . During the year the members attended teas and talks at the central Y.W.C.A. . . . At Thanksgiving they gave baskets to needy families . . . and as Christmas neared gave a party for the Lutheran Home Orphans . . . Each girl has the name of one of the orphans to whom she sends birthday cards and other friendly things . . . Now as the year is drawing to a close, they are giving a tea in honor of their mothers . . . May these friendly girls continue their good work at Waite until they graduate.

Home Economics Club

Let's look over a few candid views of the Home Economics Club . . . Aspiring members were initiated at the home of Lois St. Aubin early in the fall . . . Our future housewives will learn sewing, cooking, the standards of vitamins and calories, and ways of cleanliness for the home in this club . . . Good programs . . . good fellowship . . . good times . . . are all found within this group.

During the year the Home Economics Club has had several interesting speakers . . . including Mrs. R. Curl speaking on "Canada—Our Neighbors" . . . Mrs. Joyce speaking on "Our Chinese Neighbors" . . . Mrs. Werner, "Nutrition During the War Period" . . . Mrs. E. A. D. Cariolis, "Mexico" . . . and talks by Miss Sigler and Mr. Breneman.

The club plans to take field trips to the zoo and to St. Vincent's Hospital this spring. Miss Naomi Rehfeldt, Mrs. Maud Werner, and Miss Christine Petcoff are the worthy and capable advisers.

Camera Club

A comparatively new club is "clicking" here at Waite . . . the Camera Club . . . under the direction of Mrs. Sheets . . . Once a month a night meeting is held at the Art Camera Shop . . . where Arthur Lemke teaches the club members the basic fundamentals of photography . . . printing . . . developing . . . and the ability to recognize good subject matter for a picture . . . The members bring pictures they have taken during the month to this meeting . . . Mr. Lemke, after deciding which is the best picture, awards a prize to the lucky photographer . . . Every other meeting is held at school . . . a regular business meeting . . . Donna Jean Dupler entertained the group at a party in her home . . . A roast for members will be held this spring . . .

The club distinctions are small pins in the shape of a camera . . . a chain attaches the intials to the pin.

Through more complete co-operation on the part of the students the group could be one of the most prominent at Waite . . . The present day interest in photography should be reflected among our student body . . . photography either as a hobby or a profession . . . for what would our newspapers and magazines be without these "eyes of the world"?

Senior Hi-Y

Necessary to every school are organizations like the Hi-Y clubs . . . Senior Hi-Y . . . small in membership . . . great in ideals and quality of young men interested . . . meets every other Tuesday . . . one meeting at Waite . . . the other at the East Side Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Harlan Diehr . . . secretary of the East Side Y . . . works with the boys and their advisers Mr. Milton Williams and Mr. Walter Mall . . . The programs are usually of a serious nature . . . not always religious . . . but always about some subject closely connected with the problems of school and every day life.

Annually the Hi-Y clubs have charge of the Easter program at school . . . given in the auditorium the Friday before spring vacation . . . Reverend Bantz was the principal speaker at the beautiful service this year . . . The club has a Lenten breakfast for members only at the East Side Y.

Particularly inspiring are the Hi-Y Forums held at the central Y . . . Here the boys meet with other Hi-Y groups to discuss their problems, ideals, and aspirations . . . Good fellowship is encouraged and is found among young men of such caliber as these.

"Quality, not quantity" can be easily applied to the Junior Hi-Y . . . a small group with high standards and ideals . . . sincere in an attempt to bring Christian standards into everyday school life.

Mr. Harlan Diehr of the East Side Y helped the boys organize last fall and supervised a few of the meetings . . . Mr. Fred Klag and Mr. W. L. Brenner are the advisers that help the group at Waite . . . Meetings are held on alternate Wednesdays . . . after school . . . Programs are of a more serious nature . . . discussions of school and social problems . . . topics of timely importance . . . Junior club joined with the Senior Hi-Y to present an Easter program at school . . . Such programs are highly worthwhile and show that young people can respond well to such an occasion.

Their activities are few . . . a pot-luck at the East Side Y . . . plenty of eats made the party a success . . . A swimming meet at the central Y . . . Occasionally the boys attend the Hi-Y and Friendship club forums held at the central Y . . . Such meetings are always inspirational . . . Two representatives from the group attend a meeting of all city Hi-Y's held at the central Y the first Monday of every month . . . They return with new ideas and plans for furthering their work.

This spring the members appeared in their good-looking distinctions . . . a maroon slip-over sweater with the Hi-Y triangle in maroon and white on the front . . . very attractive.

Boy's "W" Club

Football . . . Basketball . . . Baseball . . . Track . . . Swimming . . . Golf . . . Tennis . . . Boys who participate in these sports and who have a varsity letter make up the personnel of the "W" club.

This is an honorary organization . . . no regular meetings are held . . . no dues are collected . . . The group annually sponsors at least one movie in the auditorium . . . Boat racing . . . thrills . . . spills and chills all appear in one picture . . . Those interested in hunting learned much from picture that showed the training of hunting dogs.

The "W" club's big event of the year . . . A boxing and wrestling show held in the gym . . . Friday, March 13 . . . Slam . . . Bang . . . the show had plenty of action . . . Two boys from Woodward attended and took part. Laughs . . . groans . . . could be heard . . . the going was tough . . . A large crowd was on hand to watch the events . . . Jack Mollenkopf, Frank Pauly, and Clair Dunn, varsity football coaches, serve as advisers for the "W" club.

Girls' "W" Club

The "W" club is the highest branch of the girls' athletic league . . . Members participate in intramural sports to earn required points for awards . . . 400 points necessary for the "W" and 1600 points for the first chevron.

The "W" club had quite a number of activities this year . . . first was a hike and roast at Pearson Park on October 6 . . . The most important social event of the year was the Coed Prom . . . held October 29 in the gym . . . The first part of the evening is devoted to girls only . . . The boys were admitted later . . . Jeanne Hipp was crowned King of Sports . . . Freda Egbert was crowned Queen of Sports . . . The spirit of St. Nick predominated at the Christmas party for poor children . . . Santa Claus distributed candy and gifts to the appreciative guests . . . Skating party at the Coliseum . . . Splash party with Woodward high school letter girls . . . Then on June 6, the girls' last and most anticipated event . . . the camp week-end which the "W" Club members spend together . . . chaperoned by Mrs. Mary Hartman and Mrs. Genevieve Pendelton, advisers for the group.

Girl Scout Troup 122

Waite High School Girl Scout Troop 122 . . . organized March 1, 1941 . . . sponsored by the Mothers' Club . . . twenty active members . . . First Senior troop to register for Civilian Defense . . . They have done filing and typing at Scout Headquarters, knitted sweaters and served the Red Cross . . . Those taking first aid will soon have enough credits to wear a Senior Service Cap.

Mixed in with work and worthwhile activities were splash parties, roller skating parties, hikes, potlucks and a camping trip . . . Parties are given for the boys in the service . . . The troop has helped with Mothers' Club activities when asked . . . Active in the Scout Own Inspiration Service during Girl Scout Week . . . Because they are primarily interested in service of all kinds and doing for others, the Troop is not a money making organization.

Such an active group has competent leadership . . . Troop leader is Mrs. Fred Hill . . . assisted by Mrs. Alfred Watson, and Mrs. Robert Dewey Lee . . . Miss Norma Wintermantel . . . school adviser . . . has devoted much time to this new organization.

Red Cross Club

Knitting needles going at rate of sixty miles an hour . . . This year more than any other year we need the Red Cross Club . . . a new club formed to meet the sixth hour . . . Under the able direction of Miss Elinor Tobin, a very worthy group has been established . . . The ambitious girls have been very busy . . . finishing thirty sweaters for the lads in khaki . . . socks . . . afghan squares . . . over a hundred favors for the Lutheran Orphanage at Christmas time . . . a few for the East Side Hospital . . . scrapbooks for spreading cheer.

A "flying squadron" was formed among the Junior and Senior boys . . . These boys are on call at any time in case of a disaster . . . air raids . . . fire . . . any such catastrophe.

Two prominent members . . . Betty Pund and Betty Walker . . . are on the staff working on the city-wide paper "Cross-Town."

A box packed chuck full of things was sent to the Ozark Mountains . . . for the less fortunate . . . books . . . cloth . . . string . . . yarn and buttons.

Now, more than ever, the work of such a group is greatly appreciated . . . Hats off to those doing their bit for their country!

Orchestra

Good music is an asset to any high school . . . We are fortunate in having a fine orchestra directed by Miss Cecile Vashaw this year . . . Miss Vashaw used her own extensive musical training to bring out the best musicianship in the orchestra members.

The band drive also helped the orchestra . . . new instruments . . . new music . . . renewed enthusiasm . . . Their repertoire is extensive, including classical and semi-classical numbers.

The orchestra is a serviceable organization in that it plays for the National Honor Society induction services . . . P.-T.A. Council meeting . . . radio programs and commencement services . . . December 9 the orchestra gave a radio program over WSPD. The city script class wrote the script for the program illustrating various types of dances.

The year's activities would not be complete without the traditional concert . . . with the band and glee club . . . held in the school auditorium December 12.

With flags flying . . . music playing . . . the bands in their colorful uniforms . . . the glee clubs and orchestras in white . . . all paraded before throngs of interested people at Scott stadium at the May Festival, the concluding activity of the year.

Band

The Band . . . making their first appearance in their attractive new uniforms . . . marched briskly down the field . . . hours of practice behind this initial appearance . . . With the thought of making it the best in the city, they started practicing late in July . . . Donald Haxton of the fine Massilon Band and Arland Kreuger . . . last year's student leader . . . were the directors of this summer rehearsing.

The program at the opening football game was given in appreciation to the people who made the drive for new uniforms a success . . . Effective at other games were the skits known as The Arkansas Swingster . . . Yes, Indeed! . . . A program urging the purchase of Defense Bonds and Stamps was presented at Massilon.

We were fortunate in having Miss Cecile Vashaw as our director this year . . . Miss Vashaw stressed good tones and brought out the real music of each instrument . . . December 12 the annual concert by the band, orchestra, and glee club was held in the auditorium . . . The Spring festival . . . Marines . . . Sailors . . . Soldiers . . . participating . . . was given at Scott stadium May 27.

The band always needs to be ready for parades and special occasions in which they are asked to take part.

The Reserves brought home the football Lightweight Championship title . . . tied two games . . . lost only to the Clay varsity in a post-season game . . . Team work is stressed as the goal along with experience . . . perseverance . . . persistence . . . Coach Konnert is proud to send these experienced players on to Varsity just as he looks forward to developing the younger team coming from the Freshman line-up . . . It is in the Reserve team that Waite's hopes of future championships are founded . . . Some of the outstanding players of the season are Wandtke, O'Connor, Westenkirchner, O'Brien, Rabowsky, and Boothly.

Row 1—Harold Hopkins, John Ehrsam, Bob Zunk, Don Davis, Harold Tittle, Bill Schiefer, Marion Middaugh, Louis Bigley.
Row 2—Homer Kanneman, Bud O'Brien, Charles Sarnes, Lorenz Schenck, Dick Wandtke, Clarence Raether, Frank McCarthy, Walter Ranzau, Dan McKibben.
Row 3—Walter Rickheim, Paul Lindenmuth, Tim O'Connor, Jim Terry, Bob Patterson, Garold Bovia, Joe Westenkirchner, Raymond Boothly.

Row 2—Coach Rohlfing, Bob Bair, Gene Reynolds, Donald Snyder, Alfred Ubri, Gene Ettl, Robert Allen, Coach Jeffry.

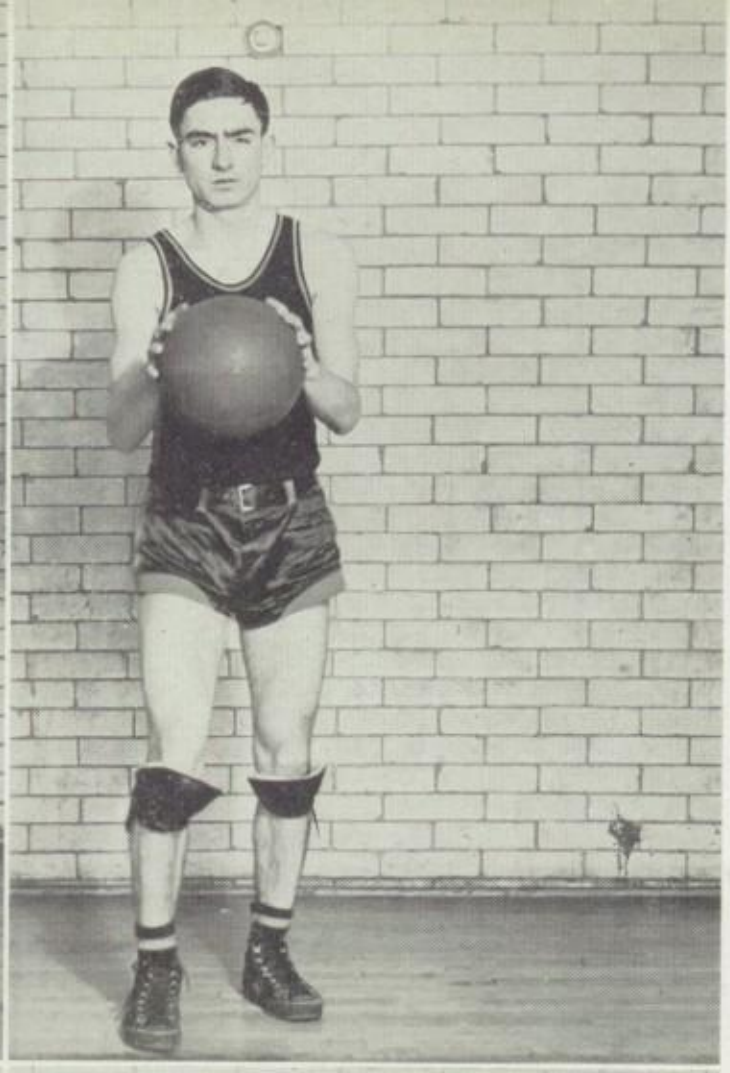
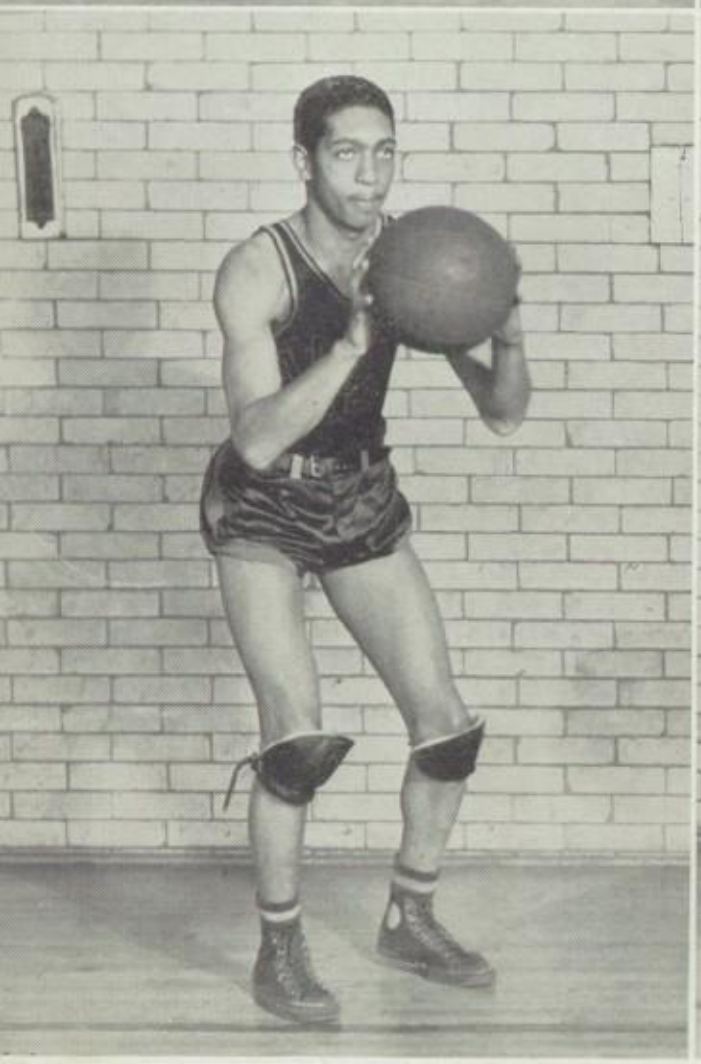
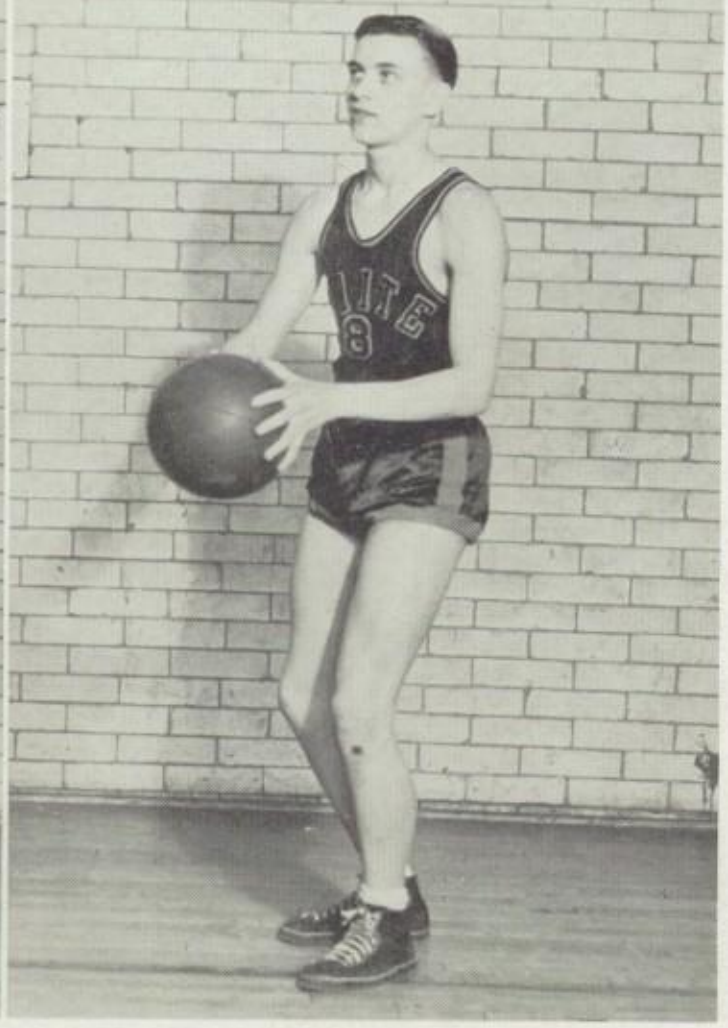
Freshman Football

The Freshman team is described in Coach Rohlfing's own words ,"The members of the year's team were perhaps the smallest, greenest players ever to train at Waite" . . . He also said, "Despite their lack of experience, they had plenty of fight and the desire to learn which develops future championship teams" . . . Practice sessions were held with the Clay Freshmen and the Clay Reserves . . . The Papooses came out on top with these teams, but took it on the chin with the Clay Varsity . . . Woodward was smothered by a score of 34-0 . . . Waite lost to Lambertville Varsity 12-7 . . . The team has the experience now that makes potential city champions . . . Because of the spunk and persistence of these lads, Coaches Rohlfing and Jeffrey have forwarded some twenty boys to the Reserve team for 1942.

Top—Harry Wright, Jack Rolsten, Carlton Flegle.
Lower—Joe Horvath, Dick Whitman, Joe Kives.







Top—Bob Felt, Dick Drake.

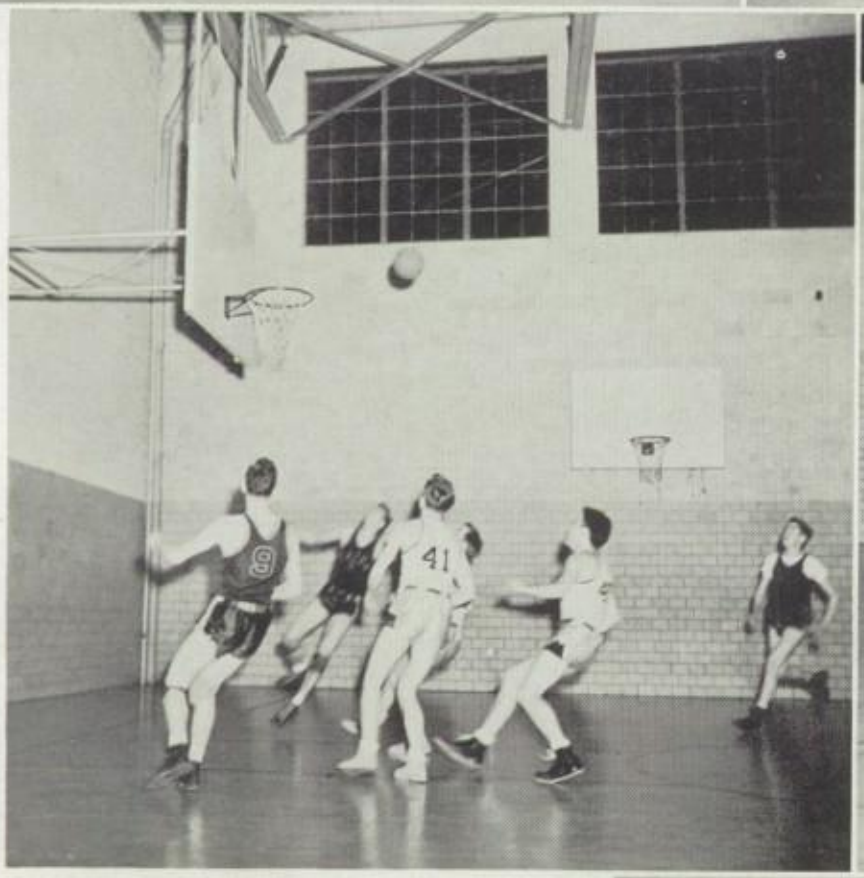
Varsity Basketball

1941-42 proved to be a jinx year for Waite in sports . . . Basketball results were not what were expected . . . Waite ended in fourth place in the city league . . . The year was not without its thrilling games, however . . . Two overtime periods were played in the second game with Libbey . . . one overtime in the Wauseon game . . . DeVilbiss and Woodward defeated the Indians only in the last few seconds . . . The squad played together well . . . no one player tried to be outstanding or be a star not playing with his teammates.

Rolsten, Flegle, and Wright were the only veterans . . . Coach Art Turby had his hands full training and drilling the new recruits . . . He has a good nucleus for a stronger and better team next year, with Kives, Horvath, Felt, and Esterly returning.

Row 1—Joe Horvath, Dick Whitman, Carlton Flegle, Joe Kives, Harry Wright.
Row 2—Lombie Vladeff, Milton Hale, Estel Halsey, Dick Drake, Jack Rolsten, Fred Esterly, Bob Felt, Coach Turby.



There was plenty of action in the Waite-Macomber basketball game. The camera records some of the tense moments.

Reserve Basketball

Coach George Konnert had a green, inexperienced team to deal with this year . . . only one boy was a Junior, the others were Sophomores . . . The team found the year rather tough, but gained much valuable experience . . . They did have the satisfaction of handing the Libbey Reserves their first defeat in three and a half years.

Row 1—Glenn Baumgartner, Sam Botek, Walter Ranzau, Charles Kimpon, Norman Gladieux, Jim Terry.
Row 2—John Ehrsam, Homer Harder, Chris Nobles, Jim McDaniels, Ken Fallon, Jim Leu.

Freshman Basketball

Persistence is the word for the Freshman basketball squad . . . working night after night after the varisty has left the floor . . . always holding in mind the day when they will be on the varsity team . . . Coach Fetters points out that, although they didn't threaten the city championship title, they now have much good experience . . . The coach stated, "Our Freshman team was equal to any in the city and better than the records show" . . . Some of the lads who will advance to the reserve squad are John Armstrong, Don Layman, Henry Sims, Bill White, and Don Norton . . . These boys have learned to work together and are eager to begin their Sophomore training.

Row 1—Carl Armstrong, Kenneth Timmons, Don Layman, Harold Kramer, John Armstrong, Henry Sims.

Frank Tursic
Don Riker

Ernie White
Mark Welker

Row 1—Mr. Rohlfing, Gordon Knopp, Don St. John, Edward Baum, Clyde Dexter, Walter Reeves, John Rideout, Don Riker, Robert Ruff.
Row 2—Harold Debth, Carl Watterson, Jack Garner, Carl Kramer, Herbert Snider, Bud Cullenen, Lester Rideout, Ernie White.
Row 3—Don Stutz, Mark Welker, Frank Tursic, Frank Schaetzke.

Baseball '41

To refresh your memory . . . the first team was Don St. John, Clyde Dexter, Walter Reeves, Don Riker, Herbert Snider, Lester Rideout, Ernie White, Mark Welker, Frank Tursic, and Frank Schaetzke . . . Team ended in a tie for second place in the city league with Woodward . . . Final game lasted 12 innings . . . Frank Tursic pitched several close games . . . Coach Rohlfing has a good team lined up for '42 . . . Tursic, Kramer, Rideout, and Garner are expected back . . . There is plenty of keen competition on the schedule for '42.

Row 2—Frank Toth, John Mays, Alex Henez, Carl Armstrong, Stanley Guthrie, Sylvester Stewart.

Track '41

Highlights of the 1941 track season . . . Elmer McDonnall, Bob Lynch, Jim Siebenaller, and Bob Schiefer won the Medal Relays at DeVilbiss and Mansfield . . . Coach Dunn's star, McDonnall, took the one-mile at Columbus . . . Lynch ran fourth in the half-mile at the district meet . . . Siebenaller rated fourth in the broad jump and the high hurdles.

Top—Jim Siebenaller, John Baker.

Lower—Bob Lynch, Elmer McDonnall, 1941 Track team with Coach Dunn.

Cross Country

DeVilbiss . . . Woodward . . . Fremont . . . one by one their opponents dropped back . . . The Waite tracksters were rewarded for their tireless efforts by holding down second place in the city league . . . The one sore spot of the season was a defeat by Libbey . . . Waite again has the distinction of having the swiftest two-miler in the city . . . Sylvester Stewart . . . who brought further recognition to Waite by placing third in the State meet at Delaware . . . the only Sophomore to place as high in such stiff competition . . . Other letter men were Albert Purdy, Bob Schiefer, Carl Armstrong, and Chris Christoff . . . Coach Fetters has done an exceptional job during his first year as coach at Waite.

Golf '41

The Indian Golfers of 1941 swung their clubs on all the popular courses . . . with the other high school teams in Toledo . . . but to no avail . . . Scores were discouraging . . . the team was as small as it has ever been . . . Individually the scores were good, but not good enough to place high in the city competition . . . Coach Mollenkopf awarded letters to the best scorers . . . Jack Ritz, Eugene Werkman, Carl Beck, "Chuck" Aldrich, and Gerold Dixon received letters . . . There are several Juniors who intend to play on the 1942 team.

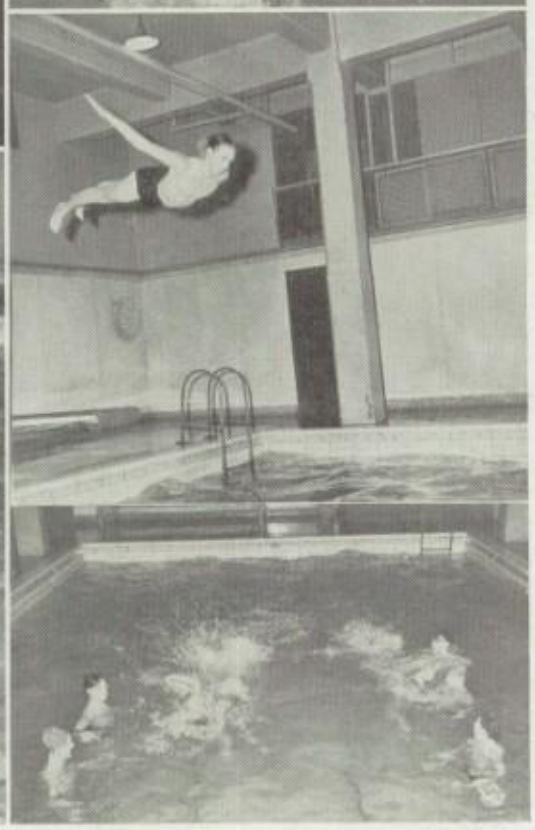
Bowling '41 - '42

Let's focus the camera on an activity that is wholly maintained by its own members—The Bowling Leagues of Waite . . . there are two teams! American League team and National League team . . . anyone is eligible to participate . . . The unique feature of this organization is the fact that the boys pay their own way—they buy their own equipment, pay for the alleys, and bowl on Saturdays . . . There are Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors on both teams . . . Some of the high-scorers are Burton Speare, Don St. John, Sam Botek, Dick Roscoe, Rosen, Elmer Sikes, Joe Veres, Marvin McNutt, Albert Mesteller, Bill Sullivan, and Noal Belkofer . . . Veres and Belkofer were co-captains of the National League . . . Sullivan, captain of the American League . . . The National League finished in fourth place and the American League lagged at seventh place . . . Scores were better this year . . . higher than they've been in other years . . . Coach Dunn says that an experienced team of Juniors will be running up even higher scores next year.

Winter Training Sports

Freshmen look forward to it; Seniors look away from it . . . Winter training means hard work . . . many bumps . . . and more spills . . . The small gym is the scene of workouts in wrestling, boxing, weight-lifting, tumbling, and setting-up exercises . . . hardening muscles in preparation for spring football practice . . . Coaches Pauly, Mollenkopf, and Dunn admire the stamina of these fellows . . . they suffer now to become better and tougher players next fall.



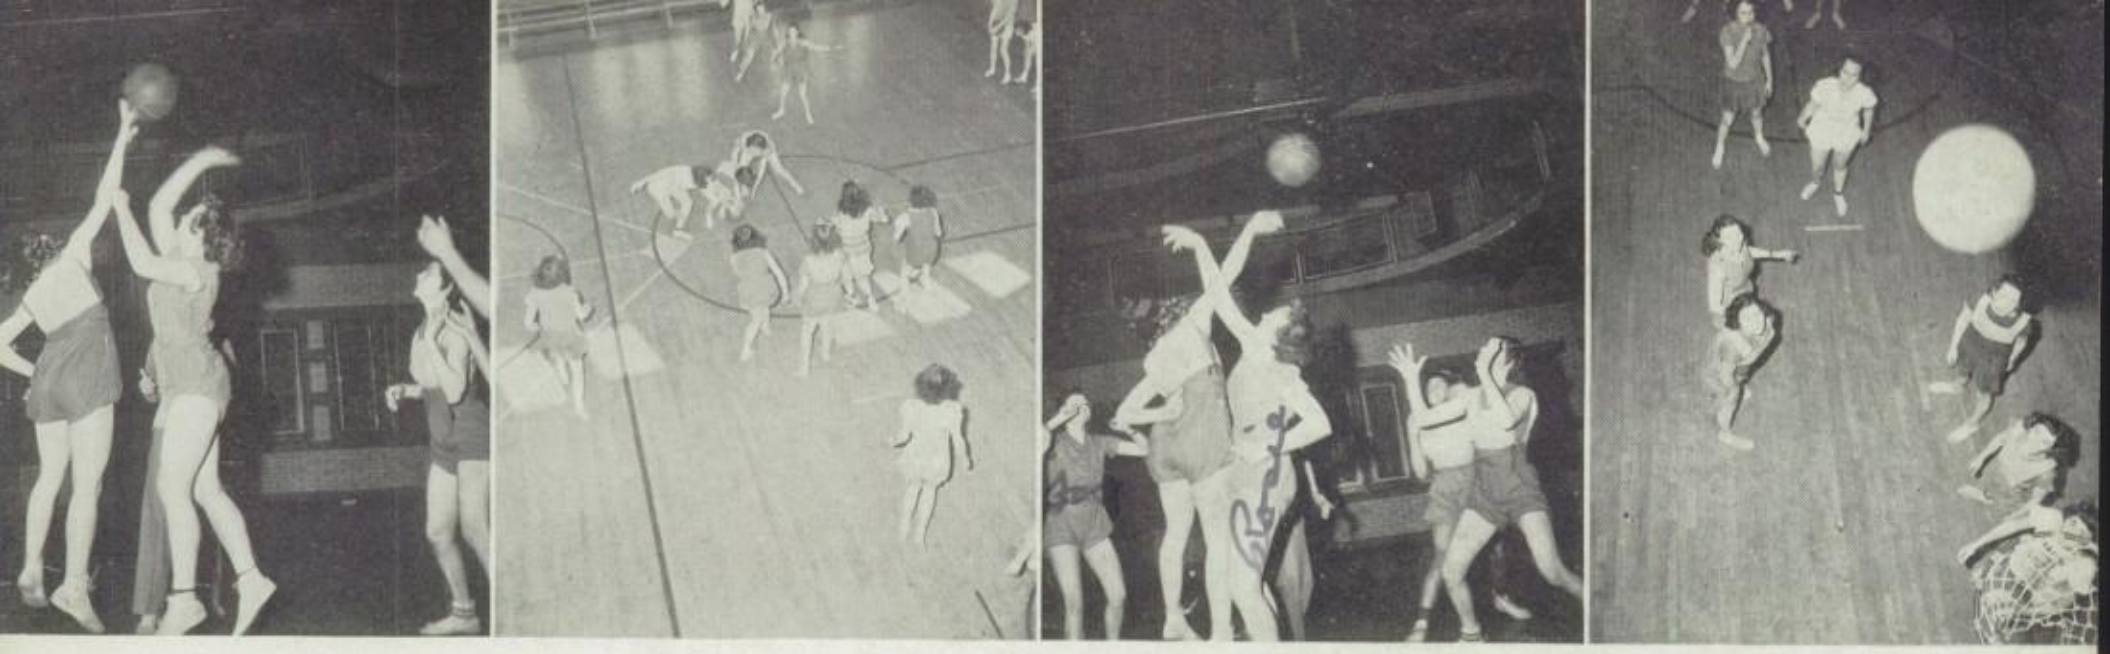
There's plenty of action in the boys' swimming classes.

Swimming

Coach Dunn's swimmers did the unusual this season . . . the lack of contestants did not permit team participation in city contests . . . The next best thing was to organize a swimming club . . . two goals in view . . . practice for the District meet . . . proficiency in life-saving and first-aid . . . In the District meet Bob Bratschi placed fifth in the fifty-yard free style only a foot behind the winner . . . Waite placed fourth in the 200-yard relay . . . The first-aid class was organized March 3 under the supervision of Mr. Dunn . . . It is a voluntary class for Junior and Senior boys who want to prepare for war first-aid work . . . Mr. Dunn hopes to make this class an elective subject next year.

Tennis '41

Letter men were Dick Littlefield, Bob Mason, Bill Miller, Franklin Stearns, Vaughn Sterling, and James McDonald . . . The fellows gained much good experience . . . " '42 promises better prospects," says Coach Moffatt, "if there are any tennis balls left."



There's much activity in the girls' gym classes and intramural contests.

Girls' Intramurals

The girls of Waite are fortunate in having a full, well-supervised physical education program . . . Routine work in regular gym classes is augmented by the afternoon intramural activities . . . Great rivalry develops between the various teams . . . bringing forth much screaming and yelling . . . that seems to help . . . sometimes.

The Athletic League . . . an outgrowth of the intramural program . . . sets up standards challenging those girls who are interested in learning more about sports . . . who are eager to develop their bodies . . . who see the value of teamwork and good sportsmanship.

Bowling was new in the curriculum this year . . . also a class in first-aid instruction . . . for those not able to participate in the more strenuous sports . . . Archery, volleyball, soccer, indoor baseball, hit-pin baseball, track, dancing (folk and tap), hockey, badminton, basketball, swimming . . . all are a part of the physical education program under the excellent supervision of Mrs. Mary Hartman and Mrs. Genevieve Pendleton.
